19 On July 1, 2015, pro se Plaintiff, David Haller filed a Complaint
20 against Defendant, Raymond E. Mabus, Secretary of the Navy under Title
21 VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964 ("Title VII"), 42 U.S.C. §§2000e, et seq.,
22 and Title I of the Civil Rights Act of 1991, 42 U.S.C. § 1981a. Plaintiff 23 alleges that he was subjected to sexual harassment and retaliation while 24 employed by the United States Marine Corps. Defendant has not made an 25 appearance in this matter.

1 On August 17, 2015, Plaintiff filed a Request for Appointment of 2 Counsel using the form under 42 U.S.C. § 2000e-5(f)(1) ("Form"). There is 3 no right to counsel in civil cases and district courts may appoint counsel
4 only under "exceptional circumstances." Terrell v. Brewer, 935 F.2d 1015, 5 1017 (9th Cir. 1991). In determining whether to appoint counsel under § 6 2000e-5(f)(1), a district court should consider the following three factors: 7 (1) the plaintiff's financial resources; (2) efforts made to secure counsel on 8 his or her own; and (3) the claim's merit. See Johnson v. U.S. Dept. of 9 Treasury, 939 F.2d 820, 824 (9th Cir. 1991). Ultimately, the determination 10 of whether to appoint counsel is left to the sound discretion of the district
11 court. Id.

12 Upon reviewing the Form, the Court finds that though Plaintiff is 13 currently unemployed, his financial situation does not appear to warrant 14 appointment of pro bono counsel. Additionally, though Plaintiff claims to 15 have contacted a number of attorneys who either failed to return his call or 16 refused to take his case due to its complexity, Plaintiff has not supplied a 17 log of those efforts (Doc. 3, at 4). Thus, the Court cannot determine 18 whether Plaintiff has made a diligent effort to obtain counsel. Plaintiff's 19 filings also indicate that he appears capable of litigating this matter pro se.

1 Additionally, based on the facts in the Complaint, the Court cannot 2 at this time say that there is any likelihood of success on the merits.

3 For these reasons, the Court DENIES Plaintiff's motion to appoint 4 counsel without prejudice.

5 IT IS SO ORDERED.
